

1. Are YOU a Church?

- No, we are a Christian Television Ministry created to empower young adult females and adult women ages 21-49.

2. Who can be a Guest on your television show?

- Christian Women: Women who have overcome extreme adverse situations and circumstances who unselfishly willing to share their extraordinary stories to the glory of God. Depending on the topic, we do invite Men of God to address issues that are facing the family to help us with certain topics.

3. Do you invite Christian Authors and Gospel Recording Artist to be guests on your show?

- Authors: We offer Christian Authors an opportunity advertise their book through with a 30 second or 1 minute TV Advertisement at a great price. The TV Ad gives authors the much needed exposure for their book marketing campaigns.
- Gospel Recording Artists: Due to many requests from Gospel Artists, we only extend invitations to 3 Gospel Recording Artists per year. Of course, Gospel Artists may purchase a 30 or 60 second TV Advertisement to promote their CD.

4. Who will not be a guest on our show?

- Politicians: We definitely support public policy makers but we have decided not to invite them on the show and no advertising of political campaigns.
- Local, State or National Government staff or elected officials are not allowed for government agendas.
- Newspaper or Magazine Publishers/Editors, Radio Hosts, etc. We are "Topics/Testimonial" faith- focused TV Talk Show. We offer television advertisement to promote your businesses.
- Anyone who has an opinion or promoting controversial or discriminatory agendas such as pro-life, pro-choice, homosexual issues, or any other divisive subject matters that we have chosen not to address on our platform.

5. Do you air Gospel Plays, Women's Conferences, Church Services, Trade Shows, and other events on your television talk show?

- No, we do not air these events on our program. We do offer paid television advertisement for any family friendly organization that need exposure for their events.
- Note: We do offer video production services.

6. How do you pay for our television program air time? Businesses can partner with us and purchase a TV Program Sponsorship package to promote your products or services. Television advertisements help us remain on-air as we continue making a positive impact in the world. It's a blessing to both our businesses/ministries.

7. Are we a non-profit organization? No, we are a for-profit business.

8. Do we do not accept exempt donations? All monies received by our business are taxed according to the Texas Sales Tax Rate. We encourage everyone to visit our online store to purchase our empowering resources and promotional products. We do accept in-kind donations such as television and camera equipment, chair, computers, etc.
